IA POINT FOR SILVER

Bold Move of Jones of Arkansas.

OTHER MEASURES FORCED ASIDE

WARRINGTON, February 18. - By WASHINGTON, Reinflary I.S.— By uself parliamentary move the silver men of the senate, under the leadership of Sonator Jones of Arkansas, forced uside all other business including appropriation bills, and by a vote of 30 to 27 made the bill for unrestricted coinage.

final vote was secured before adjournment tomorrow. From the strength shown by the silver men on the vote today there was little doubt of Mr. Jones' ability to secure the vote tomorrow unless obstructive factics are imagarated, which is regarded as unlikely. The move of the silver none came as the climax of an exciting day in the senate. For two hours at the opening of the session there was a renewal of the attack and defense, and clarge and counter-change concerning the course of the President and secretary of the treasury in negotiating the recent bond issue with foreign bankers.

The two sides pascelaes of the day were by Mr. Bray of Delaware, whose relations with the administration are such that his attenues in defense of the President and secretary were regarded as collecting the attitude of the executive branch, and by Mr. Sherman of Ohio, whose financial vines are always received with marked attention, Mr. Sherman's criticisms of the bond cantout were none the less severe because of the calm manner in which he set larth what he termed "its hard and impositie" features and the "excessive" rate of interest allowed on thirty-year bonds. Mr. Sherman declared that no bonds should be issued except to be taken by the people of the United States, and he asserted the abundant ability of Americans to furnish all the gold necessary. The agricultural appropriation was finally passed.

They were able to come to terms of agreement upon all the dozen amendments to the bill except that for the suble, the sometorial conferees receding from several minor amendments and the house representatives accepting several.

Upon the cable question the delegates from each body observed the final instructions given to them. The diagramment was reported to the senate and it is expected a meeting will emanate from the Domocrat side to instruct the conferees to abandon the cable ilem. A resolution was made by the house conferees and probably on Wednesday the proposition will come from the Republicans that they be instructed to accept the unwendment. Thus the question may be brought before both houses for delate.

From the Stockum Mail.

The bill introduced in the legislature a few days ago prohibiting the wearing of large bats in theaters is causing some concern to the women of Freeno. It must be remembered that in the sandlappud city whatever there is of outburn is claimed by the women. They have organized clubs for the study of English Silverature, expytology, botany, biology, astronomy, etc., and when their amperior wisdom has put them so far shove the mon is to warrant them to hold the interior deep contempt, they may, like the women of the Roman empire, find toxicology of use. A COMING NATION.

The San Francisco Call points out the significance to this country and to this state in particular of the new importance which Japan is destined to assume among the nations of the earth in the people who have come from the East within recent years recognize the last. Not, of course, that such a charge can be sweepingly made. There are just as good parents and just as dutiful chilamong the nations of the earth in the near future. The unprecedented strides made by the Japanese within a very recent period undoubtedly present a number of important questions for the consideration of this government, the significance and extent of which cannot well be fully estimated. Resembling this Right in front of us, nearer to us than atty other Christian country, a new mation has artison within the last year which has got to be reclaimed with in the future. In a single generation Japan has litted herself from a condition of semi-barbarism to a footing of equality with the leading nations of the country of the season of the world. She has a population of 4,900,000, and a territory which supports them all. She has a constitutional government with limitations on the power of the throne and a revenue under the central of the representatives of the people. She has a perfect system of the power of the throne and a revenue under the central of the representatives of the people. She has perfect system of the power of the throne and a revenue under the central of the people. She has a perfect system of the people. She has a perfect system of which may nation would be proud. She has lately produced scholars of which may nation would be proud. She has a system of telegraphs and telephones in all the large cities. Her leasts of the earlier's a complete system of telegraphs and telephones in all the large cities. Her leasts are constant will conducted. Her merchans are one terprising and successful. She has steamship lines connections. Within a few years cotton mills have a sent and the indicates and the indicate more coal than its recommen, and it is of such good quality that it can be experted in competitive with the coal of Australia. She has too plants and any of the insants and the indigen.

With oriental competition on the one hand and the Democratic demand for tariff-reduction on the other, enlightened labor is likely to find itself between the

No reasonable person will rantend that American workmen can compete with the Japaness and Chinese when with the Japanese and Chinese when the latter have become adepts in the use of modern in Endnery, and when that has transpired, as it surely will, civilizaon will have the gravest problem of he century to deal with.

Assemblyman Hattichl of Sacramento has introduced a bill making it n misdemeanor is work or employ laborors on the Sabbath, forbidding the sale of Sunday newspapers, and making those who go bunting on that day guilty of a misdemeanor. Apparently Mr. Hathield is wasted in Sacramento. He should not back to Massachusetts and the seventeenth century, where he would he appreciated. Fortunately there is no danger of the bill becoming a law, it should not. Why should one part of the coher: "Our Sabbath shall be your Sabbath; thus much of our creed shall you swallow?" It happens that there are others who bold—with much show of reason, if there he reason at all in the matter—that Saturday is the Sabbath; one of these classes has as much right to dictate to the other: as has another. Mr. Hatlied, parmit as to introduce you to the shade of Cotton Matter; it wants to say a few words of there is the Stockton. Japanese aggression in the Hawaiian Islands is also a matter that calls for consideration. Undoubtedly the present the consideration of the present the calls for consideration. ent Hawaiian government can maintaic ent Hawaian government cun maintain itaelf as against the indolent natices and the more active white and half-breed maleonients, but how long it will be able to withstand the absorbing pro-cess on the part of the Japanese is an other question. The Japanese on the islands are rapidly increasing in numbors, and are not only taking the lead in many lines of business, but are showing a decided disposition to interest themelves in public affairs, in which aspiration they are said to be encouraged by the Japanese government. The suprem-acy of Japanese commercial interests in these islands could not be contemplated with complacency by the Pacific coast states, leaving national interests out of disappeared about two years ago leaving his things in his cabin. It was suspected that he had been murdered, as the last seen of him he was on his way to see a neighbor anneed take with whom he had had a dilhealty.

The long absence of the man excited the anspicious of same of his neighbors, and they legan to fear that Thomas had not with four play. Finally the matter was broach to the notice of Vic Admas the constable of the Fifth district at the time, and he made same investigation. What he discovered was never learned, but the claimed to have found out enough to convince him that Thomas had not with four play. Ho was convinced that Luke murdered the man and burded the body.

The constable came to Madern and reported the matter to Francis A. Fee, the then district autorney, and asked for a warrant for the arrest of Luke. The district attorney did not have much confidence in the anateur detective and discredited the story. The matter was brough hefore the grand jury, which was then in session, and the district attorney was repusched to make an investigation. He sent Constable Green to U'Neil's to sift the story. The offer went, and in a short time found that the story of murder was but one of the imaginings of Adams! brain. He claim he had taken up and had left the place in scarch of work. Lately he was found at Chico.

Judge Stanton L. Carter and Divorce Suits.

Judge Carter has been on the bench of department? of the superior court mbout two months, and in that time, in the regular and usual routine of business, four divorce suits have come before him for hearing. Three of them were denied and one granted.

At this rate the tendency will be for those seeking divorces to steer clear of that court, onless they have good cases. However, it was probably chance that brought so large proportion of descrive suits in this court in succession. Novartheless, lest evening after Judge Carter had refused a divorce, the plaintiff went straightway and began another suit whiel comes up for trial in mother department of the court.

BRIGHT LADY WHOSE LIFE BEGA BEFORE THE CENTURY.

re-A Dust Arrester.

Just as Washington's life was drawing to a close, while the United States of America was a nation in its awadiling clothee, a girl was born who is aw living in Lainyette, Ind., and with whom I bave just had, a most interest.

Mrs. Hannah W. Wilstach.

keen as half a century ago. She has never worn glasses. Her souse of hear-ing is the only one that is seriously affected, but she can hear fairly well. Speaking of her early visits to Now York, she said: "One of our meacust neighbors was Chanceller Livingstone, neighbors was Chanoellor Livingston, who administered the first eath of office to Geurge Washington. He was a man of fine presence, dignified and courteons afte was, I believe, one of the signors of the Declaration of Independence. I have often visited, ar rather supped, at the chanceller's house with my unclu's daughters. New York was not very large, sir. I remember my consin and mysail used to dine at the residence of Mr. Withington near his brevelay, and he walked back and forth from the Battery neighborhood and considered it only a plausant exercise. His was the last loose on the north side of the city, and beyond that the ground was dury, and beyond that the ground was nity, and beyond that the ground was rough and hilly. I have been told that it is all smoothed down now, and there is little to indicate the original lay of

Out of Door Life For Women

Out of boor Life For Women.

Mrs. Mary Sargent Hopkins, at the Professional Women's league the other day, gave a lecture to women who energine their health and beneaty through innecessary devotion to home or society. Mrs. Hopkins is from Boston und is an ardent advocate of bicyoling for women. The subject of her paper was "Ont of Door Life For Women."

Mrs. Hopkins said that while various forms of author ascroles were good bicycling should have the procedence.
"It is the greatest care for insomnia over known," said she. "As a soother of nerves mostung it has no oqual, and of nerves unstrung it has no equal, and as a banisher of wrinkles and rejuvenator of age it is wonderfully efficientions. When such women as Mrs. Mary Livermore advocate the wheel; when Frances Willard not only rides, but declares that the wheel will bring a physical orangel to women; when Mrs. Miller, the apostle of graco and beauty, believes in the heart and soul, and physicians recommend it, it is time that the whim about the wheel being unladylike was stopped.

There is a right and a wrong way to ride a wheel," she continued. "Rid-ing to make or break records is abusing a healthful pastime, and it is to be rea healthful pastina, and it is to be re-gretted that my woman should app a faolish young man who rides like a quadrupad, giving his shoulders a per-manent stoop. Many women have look-ed askance at cycling because they did not admire the appearance of a woman on a wheel. Those who trigs women of taste to ride must not make the whoel conspinence in my way. Some costumes are picturesque, and some nre servicea-ble, and there are some without either beauty or common sense. The latter are eauty or common sense. The latter are e creations of a certain class of womthe creations of a certain class of wom-cum who are always rebelling because they are women. They are not content to excel in a womanly way, but want to ape their brothers. There are always wamen who are willing secrifices on the alter of reform, but these are wom-an who desire to be conspinions, and they will invite personal criticism rathur than vagotato in obscarity. I do not ap-prove of knickerbockers. We need some-thing as an antidote for the absurdity of the costume which threatens us. I costume which threatens us men are conservative—will not be-ne disgusted. The wheel is destined create a revolution in the physical woman."

Hopkins recommended as a cycling costume a combination suit of financi, equestrian tronsers, a short skirt, close fitting hat, ganatlet gloves and leggings of leather or cloth reach-ing to the knee. She said she had at-tended the Michanz clut, recently form-ed, and was glad to notice that the laall were short skirts.-New York

Sir Francis Jeune has decided an ampairs, and important point about the rights of a matrix symmu in regard to rively given her by ther hasband. We all know that till 1870—and in large measure till 1882—a married woman was, like an outlaw, positively enable to own anything. All she had was her hasband's; all she carned or interied received by gift was his to deal with he chose. But may that is altered, as he chose. But now that is altered, and a married woman, in the words of

A clever woman thus barassed has evolved a plan which she finds of value and which is certainly worth passing on. To concily fit the registers in all the upper floors she has made a series of light wood frame squares. Over them she tacket two thicknesses of ordinary entire massile, between which is lab! swiss mustlin, between which is laid the most delicate veiling of catton batting. These fasten on by little brass ellips at the four corners of the register, and the result, she finds, is not to check approachably the volume of het air thus pours frealy through, but on mustlin and hatting is loft so heavy a deposit of black coal dust that at regular intervals of 46 hours fresh screens have to be substituted. Prayed For Her in Public.

Miss Tessa I. Kolso, liturarian of the public library of Los Angoles, has such the Rev. J. W. Campbell of that city for praying for her in public. She is a most worthy young woman, but recently incurred the enmity of a few people by advising the purchase of certain books for the library. The offensive prayer was offered at public service in the church of which Mr. Campbell is pastor, and was as follows: "O Lord, voucheafte thy saving grace to the librarian of the Los Angoles City library, and cleaned thy eaving grace to the librarian of the Los Angoles City library, and cleaned the rollice." Sunday morning, afternoon and night meetings were hold. So great was the crowd that an everlow meeting was held in the assembly room at the same time thatsereness were in progress in the auditorium. Menday night the upper mom was filled to its utmost engagity. Every night the interest increases. Prominent men, as mell as young men and women, are among the fruits of the meeting. Ledford's singing is a mighty drawing power, while Gallahorn preaches in a fresh and earnest way. The address tonight will be to young men. Some Good Advice.

A good woman had a husband who was a great grumble, ha grambled at the test, coffee, sugar, -butter and ham, which he said was like Sampson in the scripture, who was strong and had much hair. He scolded his wife whose saiding tears fell into her coffee because the coffee was thin enough already. The sad wife called in neighbors to conneed with her; one said there was no remedy for such a britto but a divorce; norther said, "go to your mother and leave him to got his own meals," All this vexed the wife, who loved her husband, At last a wise housekeeper spake and said, "lit us nil stay and drink of this coffee, eat of this butter and ham which I have bought of B. T. Scott, and see if this husband has putter and ham which I have bought of B. T. Scott, and see if this husband has gause for complaint." That night when the husband legan to eat he smiled and pleasantly, "darling, what have you done to the coffee, butter, and ham, said the rest of the things to make them tasts so good?"

"I look advice of my neighbors and went to B. T. Scott, the leading procer, when I got fresh coffee, butter, sugar and ham cheaper than any place in Fresho."
